

Diesel System Treatment

Fortron Diesel System Treatment is a scientifically formulated product containing a balanced blend of detergents, dispersants, corrosion and oxidation inhibitors, lubricating agents, which are compatible with all diesel fuels.

- Simple application — one serve treats up to 80 litres
- Suitable for all grades of diesel—including biodiesels
- Contains powerful cleaning agents and lubricants
- Non-corrosive and non-foaming
- Reduce fuel consumption

PARTIALLY BLOCKED FUEL INJECTOR

CLEAN FUEL INJECTOR

DID YOU KNOW

- Diesel System Treatment cleans and lubricates fuel injectors
- Helps to prevent corrosion of metal components caused by interaction of air and oxygen
- Black exhaust smoke from diesels can indicate weeping or dirty injectors.

SUMMARY OF BENEFITS

- Helps to reduce engine smoke.
- Helps to improve engine performance and fuel economy.
- Reduces fuel consumption.
- Cleans and maintains fuel systems, injectors and burner nozzles.
- Lubricates upper cylinder and reduces ring wear.

